

School of Computer Science – Coursework Issue Sheet

Session	2025-2026	Semester	Autumn (Full Year Module)
Module Name	Individual Dissertation Single Honours	Code	COMP3050
Module Convenor	Dr Matthew Pike

Coursework Name	Project Proposal	Weight	2%
Deliverable	A document detailing the: Background & Motivation, Aims & Objectives, Workplan and References for the student's FYP.
Format	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The document should consist of a single PDF file.</li> <li>The word count for this assignment is limited to 2000 words, which is roughly equivalent to four A4 pages. Please note that the word limit does not apply to the cover page, references, or appendices. However, all other content within the document will contribute to the word count.</li> <li>There is no prescribed template, format, or referencing style that must be followed for this assignment.</li> <li>If you require guidance on these aspects, we recommend consulting your supervisor for advice.</li> </ul>

Issue Date	Beginning of Academic Year
Submission Date	28 October 2025 @ 15:00
Submission Mechanism	Via Moodle (Turnitin Assignment – “Project Proposal”)
Late Policy	5 percentage points will be deducted per working day that the assignment is late, in accordance with the standard university penalty.
Feedback Date	Within 15 working days following the deadline or submission date, whichever occurs last.
Feedback Mechanism	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Annotated report on Moodle</li> <li>In-person feedback provided by supervisor during supervision meeting</li> </ul>

Instructions	See task description in lecture slides
Assessment Criteria	Marking rubric distributed on Moodle